Concept: The Hugo Staehle Festival for young pianists is traditionally organized in cooperation with EPTA (European Piano Teachers Association) and takes place in Kassel. It pursues the pedagogical ideas of Louis Spohr, who sheltered some of his most gifted students – among them Hugo Staehle – in his own house and taught some without charge. Thus all lecturers hold the daily master classes free of charge and travel to Kassel at their own expense. The lecturers and all fellowship holders that have been chosen by them are accomodated and catered for in Sensenstein castle. This youth hostel in Kaufungen forest is run by the district of Kassel. The music school of Baunatal, directed by Joachim Arndt, provides exercise rooms during the course of the festival. There will be daily shuttle buses between Sensenstein and the exercise rooms.
